Baekjesashin-gil(road)

It is no coincidence that Incheon has now become the international maritime city of North-East Asia. This is because of the accumulated efforts of our ancestors over the past 1,600 years, trading with China across the sea, and the cultural heritage of Neunghodeae. Baekjesashin-gil sheds light on the history of Yeosu-gu and proves its values to the people.

- 1 Samhoheon Samhoheon is also called Samoiogogae or Samhaecheon. This place was the main traffic route to take the ferry to go to China. It's called Samhoheon because envoys for China and their family members said goodbye three times there.
 - 3 Yeosu-gu Cheonghak-dong Hill Path
 - A-7
- 2 Samhohyun Forest of Traditions It is planned to cultivate a fortress of historical legacy so that the people may appreciate the historical legacy of the Envoy to Baekje. The artificial waterfall in the forest which is constructed utilizing a natural rock base and a resting spot will be provided within the forest, which will serve the tourists who travel along Baekjesashin-gil (the trail of the envoy to Baekje) as a resting place. (possibly within the second half of 2018)
 - Entrance to Samhohyun Orem-gil
 - A-7
- 3 Memorial Stone for Wise Ruling of Hwangooncho At the entrance of Cheonghaks, there is a memorial stone carved into natural rock that commemorates wise governance. This is a memorial stone commemorating the wise governance of Gangdosamuel Hwangooncho who governed Incheon two times during the 21st and 23rd year of King Jeongno during the Joseon Dynasty. He was also famous as a calligrapher and his 2nd memorial stone stands in front of Incheon Hyanggyo.
 - On top of Moonhak Tunnel, Halfway to the top of Mt. Yeongyong
 - B-7

- 4 Cheonghaks Located in the middle of Mt. Munhak, Cheonghaks boasts a wonderful harmony with the blue mountains and the sky. If you walk in this calm and serene place, you will experience a different kind of emotion in the middle of the city.
 - San 16-2, Cheonghak-dong, Yeosu-gu
 - A-7
 - 032-832-2245
- 5 Well site of Baekje A well served as a place of gathering and communication in a village and became the centerpiece of the lives of the community members. According to the records, there were two wells within the fortress on Mt. Munhak. Therefore, it is believed that this well was used by the common people who lived outside of the fortress. However, some believe that the name, 'Baekje Well,' actually came from Baekje Well, which means a one-hundred cubit well.
 - 471 Yeosu-dong, Yeosu-gu
 - B-7
- 6 Cheonghak Cultural Center It's a complex cultural space with a floor space of 4,863㎡, three floors above ground and one underground floor with a performance hall, a gallery, a traditional cultural room and a youth club activity room. On the second floor, Yeosu Culture Center is located, while Yeosu Juvenile Culture Center is located on the third floor. And, it is expected that this place will serve the cultural needs of the local citizens.
 - 239-4 Cheonghak-dong, Yeosu-gu
 - B-7

- 7 Mural Street of Baekjesashin-gil A street of graffiti was established in two places, each stretching over 100m and, therefore, with a total length of 200m, around Biyu-daero. These streets feature graffiti art work depicting the journey of the envoys between Baekje and China from Samhohyun to Neunghodeae.
 - Pavement in front of the Public Parking Lot, 151-4, 90-5, Cheonghak-dong, Yeosu-gu
 - B-7
- 8,10 Songdo Station Market & Ongnyeon Traditional Market I feel sense of sweetness and generosity from the shouts of merchants who are advertising their products, laughter of people and the fingertips of people who are putting plentiful food ingredients into plastic bags. In the holiday season, the market is prepared with various food items and ingredients for the residents. In addition, there will be an extra parking zone before and after holidays, which will provide more convenience for visitors.

Mt. Munhak Mt. Munhak is both a lifeline and source of vitality. The mists of its 2,000-year-old history still hover over the long mountain range from East to West as well as above the past and present of Incheon. When you reach the summit of Mt. Munhak, you can enjoy the panoramic scenery of Incheon. The first thing you will see is the sea. The sea that felt so far away is right in front of you. Incheon, viewed from the top of Mt. Munhak, inspires both a sense of magnificence and tranquility.
